

Summer Reading Bingo

Due Date: Wednesday, September 8

There are 25 activities. Complete as many as you can (minimum of 5) and provide evidence of your completion. Take pictures, record your thoughts, scan library program results, take videos, etc. You will be using this of your evidence to create a project when you return to school in August.

Set a Reading Goal. This can be number of books, number of pages, amount of time you wish to read daily/weekly.	Read a biography, an autobiography, or a Memoir.	Read a Science Fiction book.	Read a Classic.	Visit the library and check out a book to read. Date: Book:
Keep a journal. Bring evidence of the journal with you to school on 8/28. This can be a prayer journal. I will not read it, just check it.	Read a book that is also a movie. Watch the movie after reading the book. What did you think?	Find a recipe you would like to make. Make it and treat your family to a special meal!	Read a nonfiction book – not a Biography or Autobiography, could be a Memoir!	Join your library's summer reading program and complete activities through that program.
Read one of the books on the reading list or about the historical time period you will be studying in Social Studies or History.	Read an Inspirational Fiction novel.	Visit the library and check out a book to read. Date: Book:	Complete the Summer Reading Packet.	Read a book of Short Stories.
Read a trilogy.	Write a letter or make a card and include a personal note to someone important to you.	Read an award-winning book.	Keep track of your praises and blessings for the entire summer!	Read a book by an author you have never read.
Visit the library and check out a book to read. Date: Book:	Find a art/craft/DIY project you would like to complete and complete it. Project Date completed:	Join a Word of the Day type program and keep track of the words.	Begin and complete a series of four or more books.	Read one of the books on the reading list or about the historical time period you will be studying in Social Studies or History.